

HOW TO CHECK YOUR STATUS:

To view your current status for your positions of interest please visit www.HealthPort.com/careers.

Click on “View Employment Opportunities within our Company” to login to your account.

While you are logged into your account, click on the “View Status” tab. From this page you are able to remove yourself from requisitions, or attach your online profile to new positions from the Employment Opportunities page.

All initial communications from the recruiting team will be handled electronically via email and your online profile. Please be sure to check your accounts for updates.
